8. This policy also applies to all trellises, benches, and anything else that is not part of the common area.

Pine Rush Villas Condominium Association, Inc.

- Repairs requiring exterior modification of building structure or penetration of exterior paint or stucco, surface treatment, texture, sealant or any other change to the building must receive written approval from the Association Board in advance of the work or repair to be performed. No work involving drilling, cutting, connecting, adhering or otherwise impairing the surface of the building's exterior (wall, roof, etc.) may proceed without written approval of the Association.

I. CLEANLINESS

- Only garbage and normal household refuse from the Condominium shall be deposited in the dumpsters.
- Break down ANY cardboard boxes (Amazon, UPS, Big box Store, Food Delivery, TV packaging, etc) before disposing them into the trash bins.
- Place garbage in another dumpster when the dumpster is full. DO NOT place garbage on the ground or in FRONT OF ANY DUMPSTER.
- NO LITTERING ON THE PROPERTY. Litter is nothing but a piece of waste or rubbish that has been disposed of improperly without consent and at a wrong location. Littering simply means throwing away objects on the ground or leaving them laying on the ground instead of disposing them in the outside garbage bins or inside home trash containers.
- Residents are responsible for properly disposing of other than normal household garbage and refuse (e.g. mattresses, furniture, appliances, etc.).
- Proper disposal of large items means removal from the property or placed in the Furniture Corral located at the North side of the property on 100th Avenue.
- No windows, mirrors or any large breakable glass can be disposed in the furniture corral or dumpsters and should be disposed of properly.
- Building materials from Unit renovations are the responsibility of the Unit Owner and may not be placed in the Furniture Corral. Materials from Unit renovations placed in the Corral are subject to a "Cost of Disposal" fee charged to the Association and passed onto the Unit Owner.

II. BALCONIES & PATIOS

- The balcony or patio floors must be maintained by the Unit Owner according to the Covenants at their own expense.
- Maintenance definition: Activities required or undertaken to conserve as nearly, and as long, as possible the original condition of an asset which a cost is incurred.
- No pots, receptacles or other movable objects may be placed on maintained on balcony railings.
- No appliances or other inappropriate objects may be placed on a balcony or patio.
- No objects shall be hung from balconies or windowsills.
- Do not shake any cloth, clothing, rugs or mops from windows, doors, patios or balconies.
- No towels, bathing suits or any other articles shall be hung from a balcony or patio.
- Residents shall remove all loose objects from balconies and patios during periods of inclement weather.
- Do not throw cigars, cigarettes or any other object from your balcony.
- Unit Owners and residents shall not allow anything to be thrown or to fall from windows, doors, balconies or the interior of the building.

K. BARBEQUE GRILLS

- City ordinance and LP Gas Code prohibit the use of gas, wood or charcoal grills on ALL balconies or patios.
- Gas, wood and charcoal grills must be used at least ten (10) feet from any building.
- No grills may be stored on the common area or any second-floor balcony.

Pine Rush Villas Condominium Association, Inc.

M. DOOR LOCKS

1. Members must abide by the following requirement set forth in the Declaration of Condominium:
 - a. "In case of an emergency originating in or threatening any Condominium parcel, regardless of whether the Owner is present at the time of such emergency, the Board of Directors of the Association, or any other person authorized by it, or the building superintendent or managing agent, shall have the right to enter such Condominium parcel for the purpose of remedying or abating the cause of such emergency, and such right of entry shall be immediate, and to facilitate entry in the event of any such emergency, the Owner of each Condominium parcel shall deposit under the control of the Association, a key to such Condominium parcel."

N. PLUMBING

1. Owner's Immediate Duty to Investigate Leaks

1.1 Immediate Action Requirement

Upon discovery of any leak, water intrusion, plumbing failure, moisture event, or plumbing backup (including toilet, sink, or drain clogs or sewage backups)—including emergency leaks—the Unit Owner must immediately engage a properly licensed Florida plumber to inspect the condition and determine the source and cause.

1.2 No internal maintenance request, front desk call, or emergency line contact may occur prior to the plumber's inspection, except in life-safety emergencies (e.g., electrical hazard, structural collapse).

2. Prohibition on Contacting the Association's Emergency Line Before Plumber Inspection

2.1 Under no circumstances shall an Owner contact the Association's emergency line to report a leak before complying with Rule 1.

2.2 Improper use of the emergency line may result in charges to the Owner for unnecessary dispatch, staff time, or emergency contractor costs.

3. Mandatory Documentation to the Association

3.1 Following the plumber's inspection, the Owner must submit written documentation to the Management Company and the Association at prv9950@gmail.com, including:

- Photographs, videos, or other visual evidence of the leak and damage;
- A written description of the incident;
- The plumber's written findings identifying the source and cause;
- Any treatment or mitigation recommendations;
- Any additional documentation requested by the Association to determine responsibility under §§ 718.111, 718.113 & 718.115, Florida Statutes.

4. Plumber Credentials Requirement

4.1 Documentation must include:

- Full legal name of the plumber;
- Florida license number and classification;
- License jurisdiction.

Pine Rush Villas Condominium Association, Inc.

4.2 The Association may verify license status with the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR).

4.3 Reports from unlicensed individuals will be rejected as non-compliant.

5. Mold Prevention, Reporting, and Remediation

5.1 Owners must take immediate action to prevent mold growth, including drying wet areas, using dehumidifiers, and removing wet materials.

5.2 Any mold resulting from Owner delay or negligence is the sole financial responsibility of the Owner.

5.3 Mold remediation must be performed by a Florida-licensed mold assessor or remediator where required by law.

5.4 If mold spreads to common elements or neighboring units due to the Owner's failure to act, the Owner shall be liable for all resulting damages and remediation costs.

6. Approved Mitigation, Dry-Out, and Restoration Vendor Requirements

6.1 Owners may be required to engage licensed and insured mitigation/restoration contractors as directed by the Association.

6.2 Vendors must:

- Hold appropriate Florida licenses;
- Maintain liability and workers' compensation insurance;
- Follow IICRC standards or equivalent;
- Provide written reports, moisture readings, and daily logs upon request.

6.3 The Association reserves the right to reject unqualified vendors.

6.4 If the Owner fails to act, the Association may dispatch a mitigation vendor, and all costs will be charged to the Owner.

7. Owner Insurance Requirements and No Subrogation

7.1 Required Coverage

Owners must maintain insurance covering:

- HO-6 (walls-in) coverage;
- Water damage;
- Mold;
- Loss assessment;
- Liability.

7.2 Owner Duty to Notify Insurer

Owners must promptly notify their insurer of any leak, water damage, mold condition, or mitigation requirement.

7.3 Association Not Responsible

The Association is not responsible for:

- Personal property damage;
- Mold growth inside the Unit;
- Upgrades or betterments not covered by the master policy.

7.4 Owner No-Subrogation Requirement

All Owner insurance policies must include a waiver of subrogation against the Association, Board, management, or agents. Any attempt at subrogation shall be void, and the Owner must indemnify the Association for costs or claims arising from such attempts.

7.5 Proof of Insurance

The Association may request proof of active insurance; failure to provide timely proof may result in enforcement action under § 718.303, Florida Statutes.

8. Determination of Responsibility and Association No-Subrogation Waiver

8.1 Determination of Responsibility

The Association will determine responsibility for repairs and costs based on §§ 718.111, 718.113 & 718.115, the Declaration, Bylaws, case law, and industry standards.

Pine Rush Villas Condominium Association, Inc.

Decisions are binding unless modified by counsel or court order.

8.2 Association No-Subrogation Waiver

- The Association's master insurance policy shall, when available, include a waiver of subrogation against Unit Owners, tenants, occupants, and their insurers for covered losses.
- The Association shall not pursue subrogation against Owners to the extent the loss is covered by the master policy, except for negligence or failure to maintain components for which the Owner is responsible.
- This does not relieve Owners from liability for non-covered losses or deductibles.
- Owners remain responsible for indemnifying the Association where negligence or violation of these Rules causes damage.

8.3 Finality of Determination

Once responsibility is determined, the Association may proceed with repairs and assessments. Disputes may only be challenged under § 718.1255, Florida Statutes, or in a court of competent jurisdiction.

9. Indemnification and Liability for Non-Compliance

9.1 Owners failing to comply with this Section shall be fully responsible for:

- All resulting damage to units, limited common elements, or common elements;
- Emergency, mitigation, remediation, or repair costs;
- Attorney's fees and costs under § 718.303(1)-(3);
- Administrative or staff time expenses.

9.2 Owners must indemnify and hold harmless the Association from any claims or losses arising from leaks, mold, failure to mitigate, or use of unqualified vendors.

10. Enforcement and Fines

10.1 Violations of this Section constitute a violation of the Rules and Regulations and the governing documents under § 718.303, Florida Statutes.

10.2 Enforcement may include:

- Fines;
- Suspension of common area use rights;
- Reimbursement assessments;
- Legal action for injunctive relief or damages.

10.3 Reimbursement assessments are collectible as regular assessments under § 718.116, including lien and foreclosure remedies.

11. Commodos and other plumbing shall not be used for any other purpose than those for which they are constructed.
12. Every Unit Owner must keep the plumbing system in proper working condition and without leaks.
13. Any leaks caused by plumbing which are not the responsibility of the Association must be dealt with between the affected parties.
14. Every Unit MUST change the water heater every ten (10) years to prevent leakage. NO EXCEPTIONS.
15. Every six (6) months, Unit Owners need to inspect the washer/dryer hose connection for leaks and replace them every five (5) years. Snake the water discharge pipeline when you inspect the water hoses. Inspection must also include dishwasher hoses and fridge ice maker lines.

T. INSPECTION AND COPYING OF OFFICIAL RECORDS

1. Official Records – The official records of the Association, as defined in subsection 718.111(12) of the Condominium Act, are open to inspection and copying by any Association member or the authorized representative of such member, subject to provisions of the statute and this rule “T”.
2. Submission of Written Request – Any member who desires to inspect and/or obtain copies of official records shall mail or deliver a written request from the member or the member’s representative to the Association in care of the Community Association Manager at Condominium Associates, 3001 Executive Drive, #260, Clearwater, FL 33762. The request shall be dated and shall state the name of the member and the member’s address, telephone number and Unit number.
3. Content of Written Request – The request shall specifically identify the particular record or records, including the pertinent dates or time periods of the records, and whether the records are to be inspected or copied. If the request does not comply with these requirements, then the Community Association Manager or assigned employee shall notify the member or member’s representative by telephone, in person or in writing of the manner of noncompliance on or before the fifth (5th) working day after the actual receipt by the Association of the written request for inspection and/or copying. Only the specific records identified in the written request shall be made available for inspection and/or copying in connection with that request.
4. Limit on Frequency of Written Requests – The member or members owning each Unit shall be limited to one (1) request for inspection and/or copying of the official records in any thirty (30) day period. A member shall not be entitled to more than one (1) such request for inspection and/or copying of the records in any thirty (30) day period because the member owns more than one (1) Unit. The member or members owning each Unit shall not request inspection and/or copying of the same record subject to a prior request for a period of one (1) year after the prior request.

Pine Rush Villas Condominium Association, Inc.

5. Limit on Quantity of Records Requested – No member may request the inspection of more than ten (10) records at any one time and the Association shall not be required to produce records for inspection exceeding 200 pages at one time. If the member's request exceeds either ten (10) records or 200 pages, the Association shall provide records for these limitations and the member shall be notified that the remaining records will be made available for inspection at another inspection session not less than thirty (30) days after the initial or any prior inspection session, by appointment scheduled with the Community Association Manager or assigned employee. The foregoing limitations shall not apply to a member's request for copies of records that will be photocopied and delivered to the member subject to other provisions of this rule, or to any record which is required to be provided, at no charge, to a member of the Association under Florida law.
6. Limit on Length of Inspection Session – Each inspection session shall not exceed three (3) hours. At the end of the inspection session, the member shall be informed that any requested record(s) not inspected during that inspection session will be made available for inspection at another inspection session not less than thirty (30) days after the initial or any prior inspection session, by appointment, scheduled with the Community Association Manager or assigned employee.

7. Location of Inspection Session – All inspections of records shall be conducted at the office of either the Association or the Management Company (the "Inspection Office"), as specified by the Community Association Manager or assigned employee. An inspection of the records (the "Inspection Session") shall be scheduled with the Community Association Manager or assigned employee by appointment only, during business hours and on the business days of the Inspection Office.
8. Scheduling of Inspection Session – Upon receipt of a written request for inspection of records from a member or member's representative, the Community Association Manager or assigned employee shall notify the member or member's representative by telephone, in person or in writing by mail that the requested records will be made available for inspection at a scheduled time, date and place, on or before the fifth (5th) working day after the actual receipt by the Association of the written request for inspection and/or copying. This time frame may be extended by written request of the member or member's representative in which case the Inspection Session shall be scheduled by the Community Association Manager or assigned employee for a mutually agreed later time and date. The requested records shall be made available to the member or member's representative at the scheduled date, time and place.
9. Assigned Employee for Inspection Session – Either the Community Association Manager or an employee of the Inspection Office assigned by the Community Association Manager (the "Assigned Employee") shall assist the member or member's representative in the inspection and/or copying of the requested records. The member or member's representative shall direct all questions or requests only to the Community Association Manager. At the end of the Inspection Session, the member or member's representative may designate some or all of the records for copying by the Community Association Manager or Assigned Employee, by placing a paperclip or "post-it" note on the designated records.
10. Conduct of Member or Member's Representative – All persons inspecting or requesting copies of records shall conduct themselves in a business-like manner and shall not interfere with the operation of the Association office or Management Company office where the records are inspected or copied. No member or member's representative shall alter, deface or mark any record, but may designate records for copying as permitted by this Rule. Any violation of the provisions of this Rule by a member or member's representative shall result in the immediate termination of the Inspection Session. Any records remaining to be inspected or copied will be made available at another Inspection Session not less than thirty (30) days thereafter, by appointment scheduled with the Community Association Manager or Assigned Employee, provided the violator agrees in writing to comply with this rule.

11. Request for Copying of Records – Upon receipt of a written request for copying of records from a member or member’s representative, the Community Association Manager or Assigned Employee shall promptly notify the member or member’s representative by telephone, in person or in writing of the number of pages of the records and the cost of copying as well as the cost of postage if mailing is requested. Copies of the requested records shall be made available for pick up at the Inspection Office or shall be available for mailing to the member or member’s representative on or before the fifth (5th) working day after actual receipt by the Association of the written request for copying of records. In the event this time frame is impractical due to the voluminous nature or condition of the records, then copies will be made available as soon as practical after actual receipt of the written request.
12. Payment for Copies of Records – For records requested to be inspected and copied, payment for copies shall be made by the member or member’s representative at the end of the Inspection Session, after the records have been copied by the Community Association Manager or Assigned Employee. For records requested to be copied and picked up at the Inspection Office, payment for copies shall be made by the member or member’s representative at the time of pick up. For records requested to be copied and mailed, payment for copies plus the actual cost of postage for the mailing shall be made in advance of mailing, after the Community Association Manager or Assigned Employee has notified the member or member’s representative of the cost of copying and postage. All payments shall be made by check or money order only, made payable to “Pine Rush Villas”.

13. Cost of Copies of Records – If the records requested do not exceed twenty-five (25) letter or legal-size pages, the member or member’s representative shall pay twenty-five cents ($0.25) per page. If the records requested exceed twenty-five (25) letter or legal-size pages, the member or member’s representative shall pay the greater of the actual cost of copying, including the labor costs related to the production of the records by the Association or Management Company personnel, or twenty-five cents ($0.25) per page.

U. WRITTEN INQUIRY TO ASSOCIATION

1. Written Inquiry – A written inquiry may be made to the Board of Directors of the Association by any Association member pursuant to subsection 718.112(2)(a)2 of the Condominium Act and subject to this Rule.
2. Submission of Written Inquiry – Any member who desires to make an inquiry to the Board of Directors shall send the inquiry in writing by certified mail to the Association in care of the Community Association Manager at Ameri-Tech Community Management 24701 US Hwy 19 N, Suite 102 Clearwater, FL. The request shall be dated and shall state the name of the member, member’s address, telephone number and unit number.
3. Limit of One Question for Each Written Inquiry – The inquiry shall be limited to one (1) specific question for response by the Board. If the inquiry does not comply with the requirements of this Rule, then the Community Association Manager shall notify the inquiring member in writing by certified mail of the manner of non-compliance within ten (10) days after the actual receipt by the Community Association Manager of the written inquiry.
4. Limit on Frequency of Written Inquiries – The member or members owning each Unit shall be limited to one (1) written inquiry on one (1) specific question in any thirty (30) day period. If a member’s written inquiry otherwise complies with the requirements of this Rule, but contains more than one (1) question, the Community Association Manager shall notify the inquiring member that the Board will respond to the additional question or questions in the subsequent thirty (30) day period or periods, as applicable.
